

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

TAMRA FOGGY,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. MS06-131RSM

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Plaintiff Tamra Foggy, appearing pro se, has presented various documents to the Court, seeking court-appointed counsel and leave to proceed in forma pauperis for an undisclosed purpose. No proposed complaint or other statement indicting the purpose of this action accompanies the requests. These filings wholly fail to comply with a previous Order of this Court, filed January 3, 2001, directing that any application by this plaintiff for leave to proceed in forma pauperis shall be denied unless she submits, together with a proposed complaint and application, a separate statement demonstrating good cause for proceeding in the action. Tamra Foggy v. the Pentagon, C00-1423MJP, Dkt. # 10. If the proposed complaint is deemed deficient, plaintiff shall not be given an opportunity to amend prior to dismissal. Id.

Plaintiff's present filing is deficient in that she has presented neither a proposed complaint nor a separate statement demonstrating good cause. The application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is accordingly DENIED. The Clerk shall close this file and shall mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff.

DATED this 13th day of September 2006.

RICARDO S. MARTINEZ
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
